

Aylin Yumerova has educational-qualification degree “Master” of legal studies at the Faculty of Law of Sofia University “St. Kliment Ohridski”. She speaks fluent French and Turkish. Since July 2013 Aylin has been part of the staff of “Bulgarian Center for Not-for-Profit Law” Foundation. She provides legal consultations relating to the legal framework of NGOs and also provides legal and technical assistance on drafting of documents for registration of non-profit legal entities. She works with priority in the field of abolishing the guardianship and adoption the new concept of assisted decision-making in the Bulgarian legislation.

Out of the office Aylin is enthusiastic traveler and big admirer of the theatre. As a musical background, she adores listening to blues, jazz and ethnic music.