

Luben Panov is member of the Board of Trustees of the Bulgarian Center for Not-for-Profit Law (BCNL). He served as the first director of BCNL between its founding in 2001 and 2009. He has worked on issues such as registration and operation of NGOs, taxation and fiscal framework for civil society, tax incentives for donations, social contracting, etc. In the period 2015 - 2017 he was elected Chairperson of the Public Council with the Committee on Interaction with Civil Society and Citizen Complaints with the Bulgarian Parliament.

Luben Panov is currently Program Consultant with the European Center for Not-for-Profit Law (ECNL) serving as a legal expert providing technical assistance and expert support to local partners. Mr. Panov has worked in a number of countries, especially in Central and Eastern Europe and the former Soviet Union. He has participated in the drafting of rules for distribution of state grants in Albania, has analyzed the legal framework for NGOs in Armenia and Cyprus and has worked in Azerbaijan, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Moldova and Turkey, among others. He helped develop the CSO Meter - a monitoring tool for the CSO environment in Armenia, Azerbaijan, Belarus, Georgia, Moldova and Ukraine.

Luben Panov has a BA in Business Administration from the Sofia University (1997), MA in Macroeconomics from the Sofia University (1998) and an MA in Human Rights from the Central European University in Budapest (1999).