

Margarita Kaloyanova is a lawyer who graduated from the Law Faculty of Sofia University. She has experience in the corporate law sector and in activities not related to the law. She is a certified mediator and as a part of the BCNL team she is a legal consultant in matters of registration and implementation of activities by NGOs. Provides legal and technical assistance on all other topics related to the NGO sector and the legal framework of NGOs. In addition, she is also an author and part of the independent magazine for urban lifestyle, art and culture "SEE!".