

Penka Panamska is an engineer. She graduated from the Technical University in Sofia. She works in the team as an office manager. She supports the work of the Director of the foundation and all other team members. She participates in the preparation and organisation of all BCNL events. She is responsible to create cosiness and comfort in the office for the colleagues, partners and guests. The responsibility, good relationships and teamwork are a priority for her.